

PRONUNCIATION.

GeoSuffolk Notes
42.

- from The Conchologists Newsletter, no. 27 (December 1968).

- 'Scientific names far more often written than spoken'

- All vowels are short
e.g. Calliostoma, Calus, Glycymeris, Modiolus.
- First syllable long, the rest short
e.g. Liamesus
- First and second syllables long
e.g. Salen
- Second syllable long, the rest short
e.g. Trophon

Abbott, R.T. 1969

'Pronouncing the scientific names of Seashells of North America'
3 1/2 recording of over 1300 scientific names enunciated by
R. Tucker Abbott.

- from Claude Morley 1921

'Pronunciation of Suffolk Village Names'
East Anglian Miscellany no. 5, 926.

Barham	Ba-rum
Bramford	Bram-fudd
Dunwich	Dunn-idge
Hollesley	Hose-ly
Hoxne	Hoxen
Sproughton	Spraw-t'n

R. Markham

GeoSuffolk Notes no. 42
RM '13.