

BIBLIOGRAPHY

PROCEEDINGS OF THE PREHISTORIC SOCIETY OF EAST ANGLIA

VOLUME I (1908-1914)

- Moir, J.Reid. "The Flint Implements of Sub-Crag Man" (includes reports by W.C.Underwood, W.Allen Sturge, W.G.Clarke, Nina F.Layard, F.Corner, W.Whitaker, J.E.Marr). pp.17-43.
- Sturge,W.A. "The Chronology of the Stone Age". pp.43-105.
- Underwood,W. "Animistic Forms in Certain Flints, Showing Human Work" 106-8.
- "Summary of Proceedings" (incl. 'Palaeoliths from the Cannon-Shot Gravels' -W.A.Dutt,110; 'Dovercourt Implements and Mammalian Remains' -W. Underwood,112; 'Striated Neolithic Implements' -W.G.Clarke,115.).
- Sturge,W.A. "The Patina of Flint Implements". 140-57.
- Pictor,H. "Observations on the Bone Bed at Clacton". 158-9.
- Clarke,W.G. "Implements of Sub-Crag Man in Norfolk". 160-8.
- Cockrill,H.W. "Implements in a Sand-stratum at Lyng". 169-70.
- Moir,J.Reid. "The Natural Fracture of Flint and its bearing upon Rudimentary Flint Implements". 171-84.
- Haward,F.N. "The Chipping of Flints by Natural Agencies". 185-93.
- Moir, J.Reid. "The Occurrence of a Human Skeleton in a Glacial Deposit at Ipswich". 194-202.
- Keith,A. "Description of the Ipswich Skeleton". 203-9.
- Sturge,W.Allen. "Implements of the Later Palaeolithic 'Cave' Periods in East Anglia". 210-32.
- Summ. of Proc. -(incl. 'The Wymondham Gravels'-H.Dixon-Hewitt,237-8).
- Sturge,W.A. "The Bearing of the Drayson Theory on the Problems presented by striated Neolithic Flints". 254-96.
- Hewitt,H.D. "Prehistoric Human Remains at Little Cornard, Suffolk". 297-300.
- Clarke,W.G. "Some Barnham Palaeoliths". 300-3.
- Moir,J.R. "Flint implements of Man from the Middle Glacial gravel and the Chalky Boulder Clay of Suffolk". 307-19.
- Stopes,Marie C. "The Red Crag Shell ~~Portrait~~ Portrait"(and report of special committee). 323-32.
(Glycimeris glycimeris, claimed to show crude carving of a human face, first described in short note by Stopes,H. 'Traces of Man in the Crag', Rep.Brit.Assoc., York, 1881, p.700.).
- Clarke,W.G. "Norfolk implements of Palaeolithic 'Cave' types". 338-45.
- ~~Haward~~ Haward,F.N. "The Problem of the Eoliths". 347-59.
- Underwood,W. "A Discovery of Pleistocene Bones and Flint Implements in a gravel pit at Dovercourt". 360-8.
- Moir,J.R. "A Defence of the 'Humanity' of the Pre-River Valley Implements of the Ipswich District". 368-74.
- Summ. of Proc. -(incl. 'excursion June 8 -Bure Valley crag elephants', 378).
- Moir,J.R. "The Fractured Flints of the Eocene 'Bull-Head' Bed at Coe's Pit, Bramford". 397-404.
- Clarke,W.G. "Some Aspects of Striation" 434-8.
- Moir,J.R. "Some Details of Flint fracture" 442-5.
- Christy,M. "The Red Crag Shell Portrait: A Comment on the Report of the Committee" 446-9.
- Schwartz,A. "Some suggestions for Organised Research on flint implements" 449-54.
- Lowerison,B. "An Aurignacian Floor at Heacham, Norfolk" 475.
- Summ. of Proc. -(incl. 'Subcrag implements on Norfolk Coast'-W.G.Clarke, 486-7).
- #### VOLUME II (1914-1918)
- Moir,J.R. "On the Further Discoveries of Flint Implements of Man beneath the base of the Red Crag of Suffolk" 12-31.
- Kendall,H.G.O. "Middle Glacial and Pre-Crag Implements in South Suffolk" 31-5.
- Hewitt,H.Dixon. "Some Experiments on Patination" 45-51.
- Smith,Reginald A. "High-Level Finds in the Upper Thames Valley" 99-107.
- Dewey,Henry. "Surface Changes in North Kent in Palaeolithic and Later Times" 107-116.